Calling All Women in Agriculture

This new group sponsored by Hertford County Cooperative Extension Service is for those ladies with a special interest in agriculture and serving their community and we are looking for members like YOU.

Topics to be covered throughout the year:

Learn more about conserving energy in your home and saving money in the store.

Pick up tips on preserving foods and fall gardening.

Add more healthy recipes to your collection.

Work to enhance the knowledge of agriculture in the community.

And of course tour some of the unique agricultural sights in the area and enjoy social time with new friends!

When: July 14, 2011
Time: 7pm
Where: Hertford County Cooperative Extension Office
301 W. Tryon Street Winton, NC 27986
*Refreshments will be served

Can’t make it in July?
Then plan to make it on August 11 and every second Thursday of the month for the rest of the year!

Interested in joining or have questions call the office at 252-358-7822 and ask for Wendy Drake or Stephanie Parker-Helmkamp
